

Dr. Mullican comes to us with a great deal of practice and consulting experience. He is a 1988 honors graduate from Palmer College of Chiropractic. Before starting his practice in Dallas, Texas in 1989, he taught in the radiology department at Palmer College. He received his Diplomate in clinical nutrition in 1993, having one of the largest nutrition practices in Dallas for over 15 years. He opened up two additional offices in the Dallas area in the mid 90's and converted all three practices into successful multi-disciplinary clinics, utilizing MD's, PT's and DC's. For the last 14 years he has been a practice consultant for Breakthrough Coaching, coaching chiropractors and medical providers around the country on successful clinical and business practices. He is one of the most sought after speakers in practice management at chiropractic state association meetings. He and his wife Dawn have 5 children and now reside in Gainesville, Georgia.
